All Users under this Contract must be located inside India (the "Discount Territory"). Customer agrees to enter into a separate contract for any users to be added in the future who are located outside the Discount Territory. If a review of Customer's accounts by RAMCO reveals that any Users under this Contract are located outside the Discount Territory, Customer shall pay, within 5 business days of written notice by RAMCO of the results of such review, the difference between the pricing under this Contract and RAMCO's standard list pricing for those Users, beginning with the date of the first violation through the Contract End Date above. After such payment, the applicable Users may be located anywhere in the world for the remainder of the Contract Term above, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this paragraph.

The pricing in this Order Form is valid only for the initial Contract Term above. Unless cancelled in accordance with the Master Customer Access Agreement or otherwise agreed in writing by Customer and RAMCO, the term of this Contract will automatically renew on the Contract End Date above subject to RAMCO's standard list pricing in effect at the time of renewal.
